Groundbreaking Ceremonies

Foreword

An empty school is just another building. We Brooklyn Center High School students have had the privilege of bringing life to our school. Whatever comes in the future will always breathe the traditions we have established.

In return, this school has helped to make us the kind of people we are, and regardless of what profession we go into, its effect upon us will remain.

We, on the yearbook staff, dedicate this book to the throngs of students who will follow us, and hope that their years will be as wonderful and fruitful as our year, 1962, has been for us.

Ralph L. McCartney

Superintendent of Schools

Our forefathers pioneered in a new land--we, in a new high school. They invaded a new hemisphere for adventure and accomplishment, anticipating thrills and hardships. We approached our adventure with the same anticipations.

Just as did our fathers, we have found many challenges, some victories, and some defeats. Some individuals have been and will be successful and some not. The victories are sweet, and the defeats teach valuable lessons if we but search for them.

Our meager beginning with few classrooms and limited equipment has grown to total completion of the building. As each new facility has been added, we have thrilled at its excellence and utility. Perhaps we have appreciated it more for the waiting. We have learned that through determination and effort, time can bring great satisfaction and accomplishments.

I challenge you, the graduating class of 1962, the first from Brooklyn Center High School, to remember this conquest, these accomplishments, and these defeats. Use the knowledge and the skills you have gained to meet and conquer the obstacles you meet in your future life, just as your forefathers did when they developed this beautiful America.

Ralph L. McCartney

Principals

Our principal, Mr. Wallace Bernards, has the entire responsibility of co-ordinating the school program so that the students are able to develop their interests, abilities, and aptitudes to the fullest extent under the guidance and direction of a competent teaching staff.

Mr. James O'Toole, assistant principal, is primarily concerned with the running of the lunch program, the handling of discipline problems, and supervision of school attendance.

Counselors

Mr. Rodney Brannon and Miss Agnes Danzl serve as our school's counselors. Mr. Brannon handles the 7th, 9th, and 11th grades, while Miss Danzl counsels the 8th, 10th, and 12th grades. Besides juggling programs and evaluating tests, the counselors are always there when a student needs a friend.

Mr. Billings, head librarian, instructs a student in the use of the card catalogue.

Mrs. Nye, Mrs. Kokesh, and Mrs. Voss constitute the office staff. Mrs. Nye is secretary to Mr. Bernards and Mr. O'Toole. Mrs. Kokesh occupies and runs the main office, and Mrs. Voss is Mr. McCartney's secretary. Together they form a group which runs very efficiently.

When dreams come true

The Curious Savage, a comedy in 3 Acts, was written by John Patrick; directed by Mr. William J. Kauffmann. It is the hilarious story of Ethel P. Savage who has a 10 million dollar Happiness Fund; decides to help others have the foolish things they've always wanted. Her step-children want her money and send her to the "Cloisters," a sanatorium. Here she meets social misfits and decides that their shallow happiness is the contentment she wants. After a number of escapades she is eventually persuaded to leave and devote her energies to carrying out her happiness fund.

Mrs. Savage, this is my son.

I believe in wearing out a carpet evenly.

I can't kill anything.

Yes, I am indeed beautiful.

The Mikado, a colorful musical operetta by Gilbert and Sullivan was presented by the choir under the direction of Mr. Jorgenson. Nanki-Poo, who was to marry Katisha, really loved Yum Yum, who was engaged to Ko Ko. As the story progressed, Nanki Poo married Yum Yum, and Ko Ko married Katisha, and . . . "they lived happily ever after."

Strives for Perfection

Dixieland Band

The band, directed by Mr. R. Papke, has performed for the student body at several school functions. During the fall and winter months the band played for football and basketball games, and in December, shared the Christmas concert with the choir.

Early spring brought three contests to the band. The local contest for solos and ensembles, the District Solos and Ensembles Contest, and the District Band Contest.

In May the band presented the "Hawaiian Pop Concert," a musical voyage to Hawaii.

The band also played at the National Honor Society program, the Dedication day ceremonies, and finally commencement.

Hawaiian Pop Concert

The Brooklyn Center Band's solo production was the Hawaiian Pop Concert. After many weeks of preparation, the voyage in music began as the ship set sail. Upon arriving at the islands, the audience was entertained by native dancing girls, twisting native boys, and one small Voodoo man. Refreshments were served as the tour commenced.

Tom Hartung, Jerry Braccini, Jeff Frush, Jim Brink, and Dennis Davidson brought down the house with "The Hawaiian Twist."

The first Brooklyn Center High School Magna Veritas Chapter of the National Honor Society consists of fifteen top students of the senior and junior classes. The ten seniors and five juniors were required to have maintained a 3.0 grade average during their high school years. The other requirements to be admitted are outstanding participation in school service, leadership, and character. The purpose is not only to recognize those students who have shown outstanding qualities in the many phases of school life, but to encourage many other students to raise their standards and to strive to be admitted to this honorary group.

The Student Council made possible the introduction of the Honor Society to our school by inquiring and writing to the headquarters of the Honor Society and by paying the school membership fee.

Team Synopsis

Under Coach Ron Stave, the football team emerged from the 1962 football season with an optimistic outlook for next year's team. Although the football team only blocked and passed its way to two victories, a steady improvement was shown from the first game's loss to the last game's triumph. Our team defeated Forest Lake, 12-0, and St. Francis, 9-0.

Co-captains George Andrusko and Roger Youngdahl began practicing with the team at the end of the summer of 1961 in preparation for the crowded season. The first games with Centennial, Prior Lake, Breck, and Fridley resulted in defeats for us; however in the last two games as mentioned before, Brooklyn Center recovered with two valiant victories, permitting no points past our goal.

Including the co-captains, nine seniors participated on the team. Many of the members of the "A" squad, and nearly all of the "B" squad will be returning next year, which undoubtedly will assure us several more successes since our team will consist of more experienced players.

Cross Country Competes Courageously

Team Synopsis

The cross country team came out quite successfully as the season terminated. Out of ten meets, we won six and lost four. With junior, Richard Crow as captain, the team placed fourth in the Skyline Conference. Seniors on the team include Tom Orne, James Peterson, and Dudley Thayer. Richard Crow set the team record for the 1.7 mile with a 9:24.

Cross country is often confused with track, but they are actually quite different. Cross country events consist of a 1.8 mile run across a selected field. Track consists of several different events. They include the mile run, relays, shot put, hurdles, and discus. Cross country is a fall sport, and track is in the spring.

There's high jumping Jeff.

Although the basketball team was plagued by inexperience, our team constantly played their games with desire and hustle. More important than winning in our first year is the spirit and enthusiasm that the boys displayed. The entire basketball team is made up of underclassmen, so this team undoubtedly will be great in the future.

"B" Squad

The wrestling team ended the season third in the conference standing. Captains of the team were Jim Peterson, Bryan Severson, and Robert Holman. We have two wrestling squads, one a junior high team. Very few high schools have this, so in a few seasons Brooklyn Center should be tops.

Gymnasts Juggle Gyration

Brooklyn Center has the only gymnastic team in the Skyline Conference besides Osseo, so our meets had to be scheduled with other schools outside our conference. Out of ten meets, our team won five and lost five. Douglas Fagerhaugh proved to be the outstanding gymnast of the season. He was the North West free exercise champion, class "A," and the state champion in free exercise. In the Minnesota free exercise AAU meet, he captured third place. Armon Miller, Dale Kolstad, and Darryl Sodgren also placed high on the team.

Although the hockey team was delayed by the lack of ice this winter, they recovered in time to make a fine showing for their first year. Co-captains were Dennis Rekstad and Brian McKinley. At the end of the season the team received a trophy for runners-up in the Holiday tournament. In addition, Captain Dennis Rekstad was appointed to the All-Conference Hockey Team.

The baseball team started out with a fairly good first season showing--a 2 and 6 league record. The Centaurs have had a changing season. They have shown that they have the ability to play good baseball, and yet on too many occasions they have opened the gates to a flood of runs at the very time when they have seemed to be on their way to solid victory. There are no seniors on the team so there should be a much improved group after a season of American Legion ball, and because the pitchers are still developing our defense should be much tighter in the clutches next season.

STANDING: Kenneth Emery, James Long, Russell Wiingert, Alan Howe, Terry McLish, Steve Jensen, Bob Dean.

"B" Squad Cheerleaders

Pat Fournier, Terry Andrusko, Ruth Komperud, Priscilla Fournier.

Our first year cheerleading squads deserve a great amount of credit. They began practicing last summer learning new cheers and executing them. When the football season started, the cheerleaders accompanied them to all the games. Every basketball game found the "A" and "B" squad cheerleaders receiving directions from their advisor, Miss Jacobsen. Penny Cederberg was captain of the "A" squad and Ruth Komperud was head of the "B" squad.

Our First Year Ends with Senior

Class Officers

George Andrusko, President.

Charles Fagerhaugh, Vice-President.

LaDes Glanzer, Treasurer.

Gerald Brandvold, Secretary.

With the guidance of the Senior Class Officers and the Planning Committee, the senior class of 1962 sponsored many functions to raise money for the Banquet and the Prom, the two main senior activities of the year.

Phyllis Carlson, who served as the Banquet chairman, was kept busy ironing out last minute details and getting her committee to work until April 11, when the Banquet took place at the Curtis Hotel.

Just a month later, the Prom was held at the same hotel. The theme, "Apple Blossom Time" was carried out by Jeanne Alford and her Prom committee.

Parties . . . the Banquet . . .

Typical sophisticated seniors at a typical senior party.

Brian McKinley seems to be enjoying himself.

Carol Isaacson entertained seniors at the Banquet by singing, "Swinging On a Star."

What would Emily Post say about that, Elaine?

. . . the Prom . . .

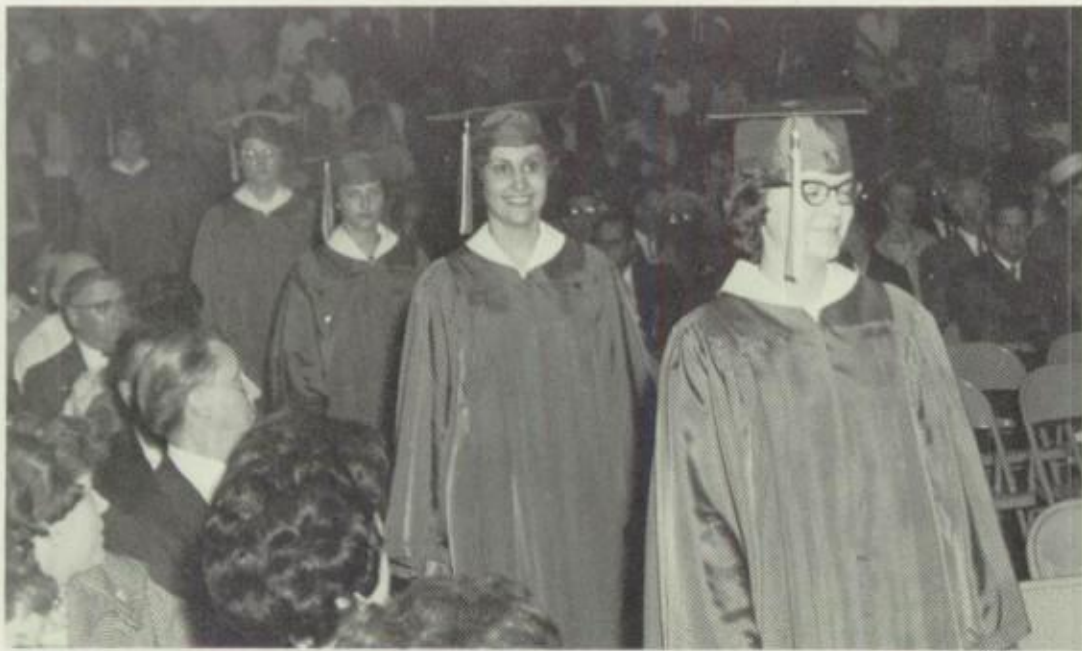

Tom Harris and company take a rest between dances.

Jim Peterson seems engrossed with his partner.

As you can see, the Twist is popular among the upper registers.

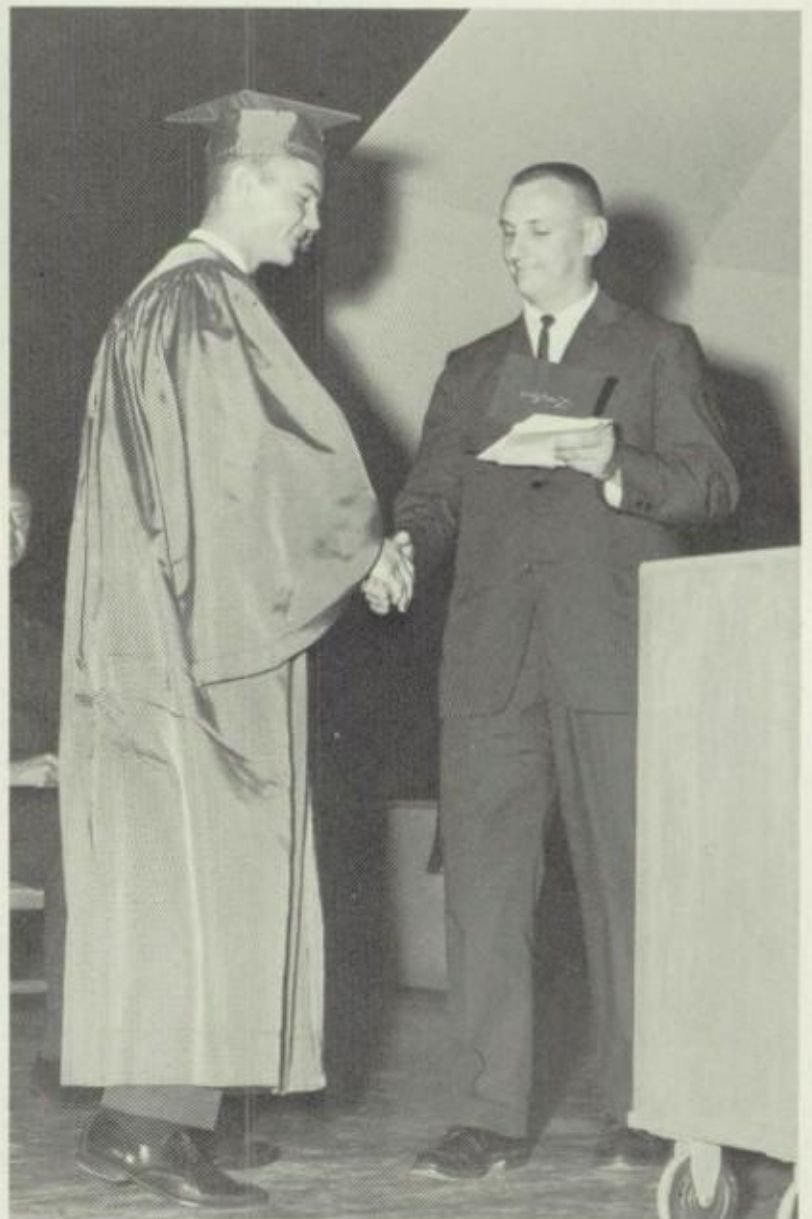

. . . And at Long Last, Graduation.

The beginning of a tradition--marching to "Pomp and Circumstance."

Ray Almer, receiving the long awaited diploma.

George Andrusko is awarded the Jaycee Scholarship.

And finally, the first alumni.
